Wilshire Boulevard Temple is your respite—your engaging and inspiring home away from home.

Wilshire Boulevard Temple is where inspiration lives and exploration begins, as we share the bonds of Jewish culture, identity and expression with our community.

Whether you are a family with young children or teens, an empty-nester, single adult, or senior, we offer numerous opportunities to fulfill your spiritual, educational, personal and social life.

Connect with meaningful, creative Shabbat and holiday services; engage in learning and enrichment through classes, lectures, films, concerts and books. Participate in programs for outreach, social justice and personal growth.

All this is available to you, and we invite you to join us. Read this Experience brochure and find at least one new experience that you would like to try. Registration for events, classes and volunteer opportunities is easy. You can register online, by email or simply call the Temple using the contact information provided next to the icon ⓘ in the event description.

May you be blessed in the New Year with health and well-being, and may you walk a path of kindness, integrity, justice and peace. All the clergy, faculty and staff say: “L’shanah tovah!”

>> A Story for S'lichot: N'ilah in Gehenna—a Musical Folktale 🌙

📅 Saturday, September 8, 7:30 p.m.

How do we measure the power of prayer? Can repentance really change our fate? Find out when you join us for an uplifting, musical S'lichot service and a performance of N'ilah in Gehenna (The Last Prayer in Hell), a charming Yiddish folktale about a humble cantor whose magnificent voice empties out Gehenna (Yiddish for the Underworld) on Yom Kippur.

Featuring Cantor Don Gurney and his marvelous musicians, narrated by Rabbi Steve Leder. Program will be preceded by a dessert reception on the patio.

>> Sophisticated Sukkah – Joel Ben Izzy, Master Storyteller 🌙

Sponsored by The Dr. Jerome Tober Fund for Artistic Expression

📅 Sunday, October 7, 4:00 – 5:30 p.m.

Listen to Jewish tales from all over the globe told by one of the most famous traveling storytellers of our time. Accompanied by the internationally acclaimed klezmer band, Klezmer Juice.

Over the past three decades, master storyteller Joel Ben Izzy has traveled the world gathering and telling stories from Tel Aviv to Tokyo and from Petaluma to Paris, with several detours through Chelm. While the stories he tells come from anywhere and everywhere, his specialty is in bringing old Jewish tales to life with a modern and personal twist.

Please join us for a delightful afternoon, followed by an autumnal buffet in the sukkah.

Sponsored by The Jean and Bob Bachelis Family Lecture Fund

📅 Wednesdays, October 17, November 14, December 19, 12:30 - 1:45 p.m.

In the six decades since its founding, the State of Israel has spawned a vibrant culture and a multiethnic democracy. It has also faced ongoing challenges and has had to grapple with complex geopolitical issues. An appreciation of the complexities that are Israel requires knowledge, probing analysis and dialogue across different disciplines and viewpoints.

Bring your lunch and join us as we listen to top academic and political experts discuss the history, politics and society of Israel.

October 17 "What Israel Needs from the Next President."

Speaker: Professor Steven Spiegel, Director of the Center for Middle East Development at UCLA, Consultant to the Institute on Global Conflict and Cooperation, winner of the Karpf Peace Prize, awarded to the UCLA professor considered to have done the most of any faculty member for the cause of world peace.

November 14 "Secular vs Religious: the Biggest Social Problem in Israel."

Speaker: Sarina Chen, Shusterman Post-Doctoral Fellow at the Nazarian Center

December 19 "Israel and Iran—What Next?"

Speaker: Dahlia Dassa-Kaye, 2011-12 UCLA Burkle Center for International Relations Fellow; Senior Political Scientist, RAND Corporation

>> Youth Choir 🎵 ●

📅 Performances (see below), 6:00 – 7:00 p.m.

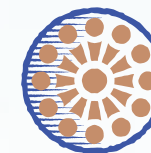

The Youth Choir is a beloved monthly feature at our Friday evening Shabbat service and during the High Holy Days. Choir members from second grade and up rehearse weekly at the Irmas Campus. Under the direction of Cantor Gurney, choir members learn a wide variety of liturgical songs and often perform solos and duets with beautiful heartfelt singing, and an irresistible energy and spirit.

Building Lives

THE CAMPAIGN for WILSHIRE BOULEVARD TEMPLE

WILSHIRE BOULEVARD TEMPLE has embarked on the most significant redevelopment project of any synagogue in America. With restoration of our magnificent Sanctuary, and construction of new school buildings, a tikkun olam center and recreation, arts and celebration facilities, the entire city block will become a vital Jewish village in the heart of Los Angeles.

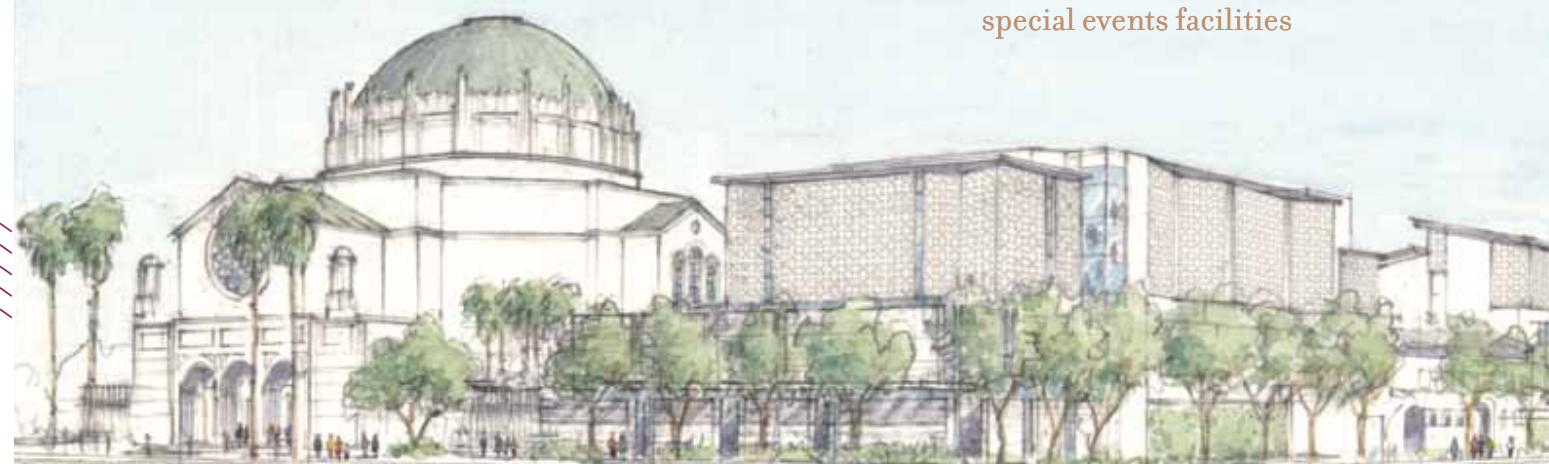

Complete restoration of historic
Magnin Sanctuary

New state-of-the-art nursery, elementary and religious schools

A vibrant center of Jewish life

Largest tikkun olam center in Los Angeles, serving our community and the city at large

World-class arts, culture and

A calm center in the frantic world of Los Angeles offering Jewish guidance for parent-child dynamics, significant relationships, marital support, interfaith issues, aging, illness, grief and loss. For questions and requests for new support groups, call Rabbi Karen L. Fox.

>> Spousal Bereavement Support Year One and Year Two

① Every Tuesday
7:00 – 7:30 p.m. Coffee
7:30 – 9:00 p.m. Session

Caring group support for the first two years of grief and healing. The group provides a nurturing environment to share experiences, gain practical information and receive personal support when you feel most vulnerable.

Our weekly Fields Center bereavement groups are coordinated by the H.O.P.E. Unit Foundation. The participating skilled and licensed psychotherapists are led by Marilyn Stolzman, Ph.D. The group is non-sectarian and is open to Temple and non-Temple members.

$30 per session

>> Aging as a Spiritual Practice

① Tuesdays, October 16, 23, 30, 7:00 – 8:30 p.m.

Like money and sex before it, aging was a forbidden topic. Thoughts of aging might scare us, especially in a society that promotes youthfulness. Join Rabbi Fox and share the moment when you felt lightning strike. Be honest about what you like and what you don't like about growing older. Be open to the wisdom of our tradition and share the uncharted journey of creativity and uncertainty, all within our Temple.

>> Caring for Your Aging Parents— At Home or Not?

① Tuesdays, November 13, 20, December 4,
7:00 – 9:00 p.m.

With the guidance of Facilitator Estee Bienstock, RN, discuss caring options for your senior parents including what services are available, how to know when help is needed and what kind of help is most appropriate. Estee will also discuss the variety of services available to caregivers, and the philosophy behind hospice care.

caring community

We Call, We Visit, We Care

The Caring Community provides bikur cholim, an outstretched arm for the homebound and ill.

We are here for you!

Is someone ill and in need of community support? Call our Temple and our trained volunteers will extend a hand, and bring the blessings of the congregation to you. Our Chairperson, Andrea Pflug, and Program Chairperson, Susan Grad, make it all come together. Look forward to Body and Soul programs that link Judaism and health.

tikkun olam

We are among the luckiest Jews to have ever lived. We live in a country that grants us unprecedented freedoms, and fights to protect them. We have the opportunity to build lives for ourselves that people in most of the world cannot even fathom. But not everyone in our blessed country is so fortunate. Fifty million Americans go hungry each and every day. Another 50 million lack access to healthcare, and over one million Americans sleep on the streets every night. We are the lucky ones, but we will never be able to keep what we have if we do not share it with those who have less.

That's why we're concentrating our tikkun olam efforts on Hunger, Housing and Health. By focusing our efforts in these three areas, we will make a difference.

Are you involved with an organization that is working to address Hunger, Housing, or Health? We want to know about it!

Hunger

>> Food Pantries 🍴

Every Sunday

📍 Davidson Patio, 8:00 – 9:15 a.m.
Ocean Park Community Center (OPCC), 9:15–11:30 a.m.
503 Olympic Blvd., Santa Monica

Our rabbis teach that when asked in the world to come, “What was your work?” and you answer “I fed the hungry,” you will be told “This is the house of God, enter into it, you who have fed the hungry.” For over two decades our Food Pantry has fed the hungry in our city. Now with locations at the Temple Campus and in Santa Monica, it is easier than ever to get involved. It is one thing to make a sandwich or pack a lunch; it is another to actually distribute that lunch to a person in need. Join us for a few hours on a Sunday morning and see the face of true social action.

>> The Big Give 🍷

📅 Sunday, November 18, 12:30 - 4:00 p.m.

As we gather together with our families to celebrate Thanksgiving, we cannot forget the thousands of Angelenos who are hungry and homeless. Once again, we will assemble and deliver 1,000 complete Thanksgiving dinners to feed 4,000 of our city's most needy families. Last year's event was unforgettable; don't miss this opportunity to infuse your Thanksgiving with some added meaning.

Housing

>> Imagine LA

📅 Ongoing

The highest rung on Maimonides' “Ladder of Tzedakah” is to help the disadvantaged improve their own lives by teaching them how to help themselves. There are approximately 8,000 homeless families in Los Angeles, and approximately 8,000 houses of worship. If each church, synagogue and mosque took responsibility for one family, we would end familial homelessness in our city. Imagine LA (www.imaginelatla.org) is based on this simple premise.

Through our partnership with Imagine LA, we have been matched with Denny, Tristan and their daughter Ezari, who have just moved into transitional housing. For the next two years we will mentor and support them as they become self-sufficient and move into sustainable housing.

Our team of mentors grows with our family's needs, so there's always a way to get involved.

Health

>> Care Harbor Health Clinic 🏥

Sunday, September 30
Los Angeles Memorial Sports Arena

Again this fall, nearly 10,000 of the most needy in our city will descend on the Los Angeles Memorial Sports Arena for the Care Harbor Free Health Clinic.

This year, Wilshire Boulevard Temple is teaming up with Care Harbor to make a difference.

The Care Harbor Clinic provides free care on a massive scale—everything from dental fillings, cleanings and extractions to eye exams and prescription glasses; from medical exams and procedures to immunizations and screenings. In the span of a single day, this clinic brings help and hope to thousands.

Join our Wilshire Boulevard Temple team at this year's Care Harbor Clinic. Whether you're a healthcare professional or not, we need you! In addition to medical and dental professionals, there are hundreds of volunteer opportunities to get everyone and anyone involved—and to make a real difference.
